SENATOR MICHAEL "BIG MIKE" FESI TAKES OATH OF OFFICE AS NEW DISTRICT 20 STATE SENATOR

Michael "Big Mike" Fesi is the new state senator for Senate District 20. The Houma Republican replaces former Senator Norby Chabert. Senator Fesi was one of 20 new members sworn in during an organizational session of the Senate at the State Capitol in Baton Rouge yesterday.

"It was a great feeling of accomplishment being sworn in," said Sen. Fesi. "I'm extremely proud to say that our Senate came together and unanimously elected all offices - from Senate President to Sergeant of Arms. Hopefully this is a sign that our State Senate will continue working together for the coming years to bring the great State of Louisiana the success it deserves."

Senator Fesi places a high priority on generating economic opportunities and job creation. He also plans to focus on balancing the state's operating budget and repairing Louisiana's coast.

Senator Fesi is a businessman and community leader. He has served as an at-large delegate to the Republican National Convention and as a member of the Republican State Central Committee. Born and raised in Terrebonne Parish, he is a graduate of Terrebonne High School and has been self-employed for 40 years. He and his wife, Carla, have four children and 11 grandchildren and one more on the way.
